Instructors

Kari Turunen

was educated at the University of Helsinki and the Sibelius Academy where he studied choral conducting with Matti Hyökki. He holds a doctorate in early music performance practice from the University of the Arts, Helsinki.

He is the artistic director of five choirs and ensembles: the male chorus Akademiska Sångföreningen (2008–); Kampin Laulu chamber choir (2011–); the choir of the cantors of the Finnish Lutheran Church, Chorus Cantorum Finlandiae (2011–); the all-male Ensemble Petraloysio (2011–); and Spira Ensemble (2012–). He is also a member of Lumen Valo, a vocal ensemble that is one of the driving forces on the Finnish early music scene.

Dr. Turunen taught choral conducting at the Tampere University of Applied Sciences School between 2001 and 2011 before concentrating on the roles of conductor and artist-scholar. He appears regularly as a teacher at choral courses, adjudicator and clinician. Turunen acts as chairman of the Finnish Choral Directors' Association (FCDA). He was the "Choral Conductor of the Year 2008" in Finland.

Rahela Duric

is coming from a Slovenian town called Maribor, where she started her professional musical career. After graduating in violin, she decided to study choir and orchestra conducting under the watchful eye of Prof. Johannes Prinz and Prof. Wolfgang Dörner at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Graz. She finished her masters with honors in 2013.

In 2015 she participated in the International Competition for young Conductors in Turin and received the Noel Minet prize and funding for 'A promising young conductor'. In January 2016 the radio station Ö1 picked and featured her in the show Intrada as talent of the month. Currently she is working as an assistant lecturer for choir conducting under Johannes Prinz at the University for Music and Performing Arts in Graz.

She is participating and running the integration project MEET4MUSIC at KUG. Additionally, she is an artistic manager and coach for new music teachers as part of the project SUPERAR Steiermark, which focuses on teaching children of immigrant families. She is also leading and running several courses in choir schools throughout the country and is successfully managing two of her own choirs.
